At Local Fireworks Displays

Arrangements Made to Cope With Lost Child Problems

Loudspeakers and headquarters stands will be in operation at both the Granite City and Madison Fourth of July festivals this weekend, primarily to cope with the annual stage of lost youngsters in the fireworks displays.

Harold Brown, Granite City park superintendent, said dozens of children usually are separated from their parents as the fireworks exhibit ends and frantic searches result. "The same thing happens here," Madison Police Chief Kenneth Pappas said. Brown and Pappas advise parents to hold onto small children during the displays.

Both displays are set for Monday with the Wilson Park stage at 7 p.m. and the Madison display at the junior high school grounds on Third street beginning at 10 p.m.

Extra police and park guards will be on duty at both areas for the weekend picnics.

Brown added that park guards are being instructed to take into custody any individual shooting fireworks in the park, endangering youngsters and adults. "We'll turn them over to the city police, then," the superintendent said.

May Ask Rehearing In Rail Tax Case

Joseph Bartylak, Madison county state's attorney, said today that his office is considering a plan to file a petition with the Illinois Supreme Court asking a rehearing of the railroad assessment cases.

The Supreme Court last week reversed a Madison county circuit court decision which, if upheld, will mean a loss of approximately $2,000,000 in tax funds to Madison county taxing districts. The circuit court decision, handed down by Circuit Judge James O. Monroe Jr., favored the county and would have meant distribution of most of the $2,000,000 to the taxing units.

The railroads challenged the assessment of their property for a six-year period saying they were assessed at 100% of fair cash value while other property in the county was assessed at approximately 50%.

Two alternatives were open to the county, a petition for rehearing or direct appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court. Bartylak said the rehearing will be sought first since a direct appeal still may be taken later.

Madison Youth Enlists For Air Defense Unit

Willie J. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Williams, 212 Third street, Madison, enlisted last week in the U. S. Army.

He is a 1963 graduate of Madison high school and enlisted for the Air Defense Command, St. Louis area. The ADC is located in practically all metropolitan areas.

Sgt. James Maddox, local Army recruiter, said Williams was scheduled for induction on July 1 but he was able to get in on the notice for the enlistment.

"This gets quite involved," Sgt. Maddox said, and anyone who thinks he is getting close to receiving his notice and would like to choose the type of training he wants, should contact the recruiting office at 1340 Niedringhaus avenue.

Elmer Lippold, 49, Dies of Cancer

Elmer William Lippold, 49, of 2316 St. Bernard avenue, a lifelong resident of Granite City, died of cancer at 11:45 p.m. Tuesday, at Jewish Hospital, St. Louis, where he had been a patient one week. He had been hospitalized at St. Elizabeth Hospital after first becoming ill five weeks ago.

Born in Granite City, Mr. Lippold had been employed as an operator in the hot strip department of Granite City Steel Co. for about 30 years. A world war II veteran, he was a member of the United Steelworkers of America, AFI-CIO.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Frances Lippold; two sons, Larry, 14, and Alvin, 12; and a sister, Mrs. James (Marie) Lumpkins, also of Granite City. Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

GC Man Faces Conduct Charge in Edwardsville

James J. Ortiz, 37, of 2651 Edwardsville street, has been charged with disorderly conduct over a fracas at the home of his estranged wife in Edwardsville and is scheduled for a magistrate's hearing on July 12.

Edwardsville police said he broke into the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Pucher, on Sunday and left with his two-year-old son. Police said he was issued a notice to appear in court to answer the charge.

Common Garden Plants Can be Poisonous

Dangers of common weeds and plants are being stressed by Mrs. Catherine R. Mauck, home adviser for Madison county, who pointed out the frequent poisoning of youngsters who eat the leaves, berries or roots.

The statistics that point to 700 species of plants known to have caused illness or death were compiled by the Home Economics Extension of Madison county with data supplied by the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Some of the plants, Mrs. Mauck said, are common and are in home gardens, in picnic areas and widespread areas. The U.S. Public Health Service estimates 12,000 children are poisoned each year by the common plants. The death rate is not known because many are saved by use of the stomach pump, Mrs. Mauck added.

The text of her report follows:

Peach Tree Leaves

"The leaf of the peach tree looks harmless, yet it contains one of the most dangerous poisons known, hydrocyanic acid."

Cyanide is packaged in twigs of the cherry tree. Leaf blades of rhubarb contain oxalic acid which causes severe kidney damage. It is said that some cooks do have recipes for preparing rhubarb leaves, much as you do spinach. Please don't try them.

"There is no need to stop growing beautiful flowers and plants just because they contain poison. Just keep them out of your mouth. Train children not to chew on anything other than known foods, no matter how familiar it is."

"The flowers of narcissus, hyacinth, and Daffodil are lovely, but poison from the bulbs causes nausea, vomiting and diarrhea and can be fatal. The striped 'dumb cane' and the familiar 'Elephant's' both contain crystals of calcium oxalate which causes painful swelling of the mouth and tongue, severe enough to close off air passages of the throat."

"One of the poisons from the poinsettia can kill a child, there is enough poison in a dime pack of castor beans seeds to kill five children, Larkspur, lily-of-the-valley, iris, sweet peas, monkshood, autumn crocus and bleeding heart are a few familiar plants that have toxic parts — flowers, stems, leaves, seeds, berries, roots or bulbs."

Other Flowers

"Lauri, rhododendron, azalea, daphne, oleander and wisteria also are poisonous. People have died from eating stalks that were speared with oleander sticks and roasted over a fire. Berries from daphne, night shade and moonseed, which resembles wild grape can be fatal. Jimson weed, also called stickee or thorn apple, grows in abundance and is considered responsible for more poisonings than any other plant."

"Ordinary lawn grass is safe, unless it is heavily coated with insecticides, but wild mushrooms should be left to experts."

"What about family pets and other animals? The poisons might affect them too, but animals are strongly wise. Have you ever seen them eat wild mushrooms?"

"Please don't go around eating the daisies this summer and give your children this same advice," Mrs. Mauck said.

Tornadoes,

random from three states.

Underinsured by $5000

"Insurance totaled $279,000 but the amount of the losses was $342,000. This means that a dozen homeowners were underinsured for an average of $5000 on their houses and personal property."

"The public relations implications are obvious. Also obvious is the fact that the companies and agents should have benefited by the premiums on $63,000 additional coverage regardless of whether they would have had to pay it out in the subsequent losses. It would have been more than offset if they had made it a practice to insist upon proper insurance to value."

"Whether the agents in these Palm Sunday cases attempted to sell the necessary coverage and were rebuffed, we have no way of knowing. But the cost of the insurance is so relatively inconsequential it is difficult to picture much sales resistance being encountered."

"Within recent months, a prominent stock company undertook a survey of homeowners' policies through an independent research organization. The study revealed that over half the dwellings were insured for less than 80% of their replacement cost. Average amount on all the homes was less than 71% of replacement cost."

Loss Would Have Been Profited

"The company pursued its calculations to establish that if these sample returns—and there were over 5000 of them—were related to all homeowners' policies, the additional premium to bring insurance up to four fifths of value would produce a countrywide profit instead of the current disastrous loss."

"This conclusion takes into consideration the well-established fact that the average dwelling loss remains fairly constant regardless of the amount of premium involved."

"The theme of adequate insurance to value is not a new one. It has been played many times before. But as you can see from the examples, it doesn't seem to have been getting through."

Magnuson sees the issue as boiling down to a matter of "reducing outgo" or "increasing income."

Insuring to 80% of value has the effect of increasing the income of the insurer. Reduction of outgo can be achieved through requiring a deductible clause in policies.

In the Indiana example cited earlier in this article, the new schedule filed by the Indiana Rating Bureau forces policyholders to pay for the first $50 storm damage in each loss, with the insurance company paying the remainder.

Optional For Many Years

Magnuson points out that "a number of years ago, an optional $50 wind and hail deductible cover was introduced in many states at a differential in rate. When only a relatively few such policies were sold, the buy-back plan was brought in; this, too, failed to produce the desired result."

"I am not suggesting that agents did not offer their customers the option of full coverage or deductible insurance, or that mortgage institutions failed to make known to their borrowers that this choice was available."

"But I do know that the experience on wind and hail under both extended coverage and the homeowner policy continued to deteriorate because of the ever-increasing number of small claims under full coverage insurance."

Equipment from certain elements in agency ranks. But I do not see how the industry can continue to temporize with the problem that admits of no other answer."

Saving to Families

Whether voluntary or mandatory, deductible insurance is not entirely a step backward from the point of view of the property owner.

As was pointed out by the Indiana bureau this spring, "Though the deductible clause has been optional for years, many families do not realize the economic advantage of carrying it. Policies on homes will now cost less."

"Coverage for the first $50 of storm insurance has cost more, in some cases, than the balance of the policy."

Explaining the savings to dwelling owners through $50 deductible insurance, the Indiana Rating Bureau cited the example of a frame home insured in the past for $6000.

Paddlers to Compete in AAU Swim Relays Saturday in Marion

The Paddlers swimming team will compete in the Southern Illinois AAU championship relays Saturday at Marion, with 50 Granite City youngsters to participate.

They will leave the Paddlers pool by bus at 6:30 a.m. Competing will be teams starting at age groups of nine and 10 years. Individual AAU championships will be held July 31 at the same place.

Events at Marion will include the medley relays, in which each team will swim the back, breast, butterfly and free strokes; and free style relays; the all-age relay in each stroke, with one member from each of the four age groups; and the individual medley relay, in which each of four swimmers will do 25 yards in all four of the strokes.

The swimming team travels to Sunset Hills Country Club for a meet at 6 p.m. today, and on Tuesday, the "B" team will provide an exhibition at the Hilltoppers club of Dupo, a new group which joined the Southwestern Illinois Swimming Association this year.

A big dual meet will be with Florissant, Mo., at 6 p.m. next Thursday at the local pool. Keith Parker, pool manager and coach, said the meet will provide some of the local competition of the season.

THE MADISON COUNTY SPORTSMAN

By DON HASTINGS
County Conservation Officer

I have had one complaint of early squirrel hunting and would appreciate greatly being called by any rural resident that hears shooting early in the morning. This begins the time of the year when we work a lot of early mornings and late evenings.

Fishing remains so-so with a few good catches heard of. A couple of Edwardsville men fishing overnight near Mosier on the Illinois this weekend had a good catch but I did not get further details. Saw one two pound channel caught by boy in a private lake using a spinner with a red skirt. Plastic worm seems to be the best bass bait.

Squirrel season to open

Squirrel season for the southern zone will open Aug. 1 with the same daily limit, five pounds and best change is the fact that the southern zone will now run all the way up to Route 26, the dividing line all of the way across the state. There no longer will be confusion as to where the line is nor the possibility of accidentally wandering across into the wrong zone while hunting.

This puts all of the counties joining us on the north into same zone with us and this will help many Madison counties who like to hunt in Madison and Montgomery counties.

Deer, Teal Duck Permits Now is the time to get your deer permit as they were being accepted as of June 28. Also permits for the special teal duck season must be in by Aug. 1. Just send your name and address and county to the Dept. of Conservation at Springfield and ask for the permit for which you will not be charged. You will not receive it until after Sept. 1 but it must be in by Aug. 1.

SIU Computer Selects Horse Race Winner

Southern Illinois University's mechanical brain has handicapped the field for the $125,000 Hambletonian at the DuQuoin State Fair Sept. 1 and has come up with a "winner."

The giant IBM computer, to the surprise of experts, selected a filly named Armilla Flight, rather than Noble Victory, a Houston, Tex., bred generally regarded as the favorite. Armilla Flight, owned by C. E. and J. E. Armstrong of Brampton, Ontario, Canada, won 20 of 26 races last year as a two-year-old and $107,452 to become the only filly to win the $100,000 Hambletonian. The computer picked Noble Victory for second place. It was the first time modern electronic data processing equipment had been used to forecast a horse race.

APPREHENSION AND DELIGHT are mirrored in the faces of Paula Schuler, left, and Sandra Black, who are competing in a preliminary sack race for the Granite City park district's Junior Olympics. Waiting expectantly in the background are boys' division contestants. Events are divided into age groups with the winners of preliminaries to compete for ribbons July 7 at Wilson Park. By several hops, Paula was the eventual winner.

JUNIOR OLYMPICS PRELIMINARY CONTESTS are viewed intently by prospective participants as elimination events were held this week at nine Granite City park district recreation centers. Kevin McGovern, 12, of 3016 Warren avenue, makes a long leap on a running broad jump at the Marshall school center. Winners in the various events will compete July 9 at Wilson Park. Recording the distance is Nick Petillo of the park district's recreation staff.

Junior Olympics Carded For Wednesday at Park

The Granite City park district's "Junior Olympics" sports high school band members. City event is slated to be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in Wilson Park. It was announced today by Mrs. Helen Bjorkman, who assists in coordinating the district's summer recreational program which is conducted each weekend at nine recreational centers located throughout the city.

Earlier this week, second through sixth grade youngsters competed in various age-group events held at the respective playground centers, with the preliminary winners to compete for first, second and third-place ribbons in the "Junior Olympics."

More than 220 ribbons will be awarded to the winners, Mrs. Bjorkman said. A large number of parents and friends are expected to view the finals, which will be judged by members of the Granite City high school coaching staff.

Modeled after the world-famous sporting event, the "Junior Olympics" will feature many of its colorful trademarks, including a torchlight parade and fanfares to announce the winners.

Individual events will include broad and high jumps, races, throwing, football kicking and novelty contests such as sack races.

Contestants will represent Logan, Marshall, McKinney, Niedringhaus, Nameki, Webster and Wilson schools and the park district community centers and Salvation Army center.

State Will Tighten Enforcement of Its Fishing License Law

Many persons are fishing in Illinois without a valid fishing license. This conclusion has been reached by the Illinois Department of Conservation following recent surveys conducted throughout the state.

The Fish Code of the Illinois requires all persons, 16 years of age and over, to have a fishing license when they are fishing in any Illinois waters.

An exception is made for owners or tenants of farm lands and their children, actually residing on such lands, who need not have a license while fishing their waters.

William T. Lodge, conservation director, said he has advised the Law Enforcement Division to enforce the fish code strictly on all waters of the state, including the Illinois side of Lake Michigan in Cook and Lake counties.

Of particular interest to those who fish for smelt is a provision the present General Assembly has added to the fish code of Illinois. It requires smelt fishermen to have a valid hook and line fishing license.

Good Fellows Lose Twice, Credit Union, A-C Win in Classic

The good guys may not always lose but the Good Fellows took it on the chin Tuesday night in Classic Softball League action at Wilson Park, losing to Granite City Sigel Credit Union 9-1 and to A-C Contracting 14-5.

In a third game, Credit Union blanked Mesta 8-0.

The Good Fellows, in a make-up of a June 22 rainout, collected seven hits against Credit Union but had trouble with a good defense, and winning pitcher Carol Givson was credited with seven strikeouts, some coming in key situations.

Credit Union scored the game with four runs in the bottom of the sixth inning on two walks, doubles by John Draper and Bill Crabtree and singles by Don Crabtree and George Grove.

Of the winners' eight hits, Draper had two doubles and Grove doubled and singled.

Good Fellows managed to knock the plate in the fourth which Jack Scarborough opened with a single and advanced on another hit by Jake Hinters.

Scarborough and hurler Bala Champion each had two hits.

Contracting opened with a seven-run, five-hit barrage in the first which included a home run by pitcher Ray Hoffmann.

The Good Fellows came through with 11 hits, bunting four in the fourth for two runs, their biggest frame. Pete Robinson doubled and tripled, Merv Brokaw had two doubles, Hinters tripled and singled and Scarborough had a three-bagger.

Mesta was held to four hits by Credit Union's Bill Fawer and Jack James while Credit Union went ahead with single rallies in the second and fourth innings and three in the fifth on a double by Draper and singles by Fred Cavins and Paul Hollis.

The other in the seventh came on a triple by Bill Holsner and an error. Ten Mesta batters fanned.

Low VA Insurance Rates For Disabled Veterans

Should some unexpected tragedy befall a veteran, he can still be sure that his child will have a good start toward a higher education—and for as little as 75 cents a week, John B. Naser, the Veterans Administration manager for Illinois, said today.

Naser was referring to the opportunity certain disabled veterans now have to purchase GI life insurance at extremely low rates if they have less than $10,000 of their original GI insurance in effect.

A $2000 modified life GI policy can be obtained by eligible disabled veterans for as little as Naser said that the examples given above were based on age 45, the average age today of veterans of world war II and the Korean Conflict. The cost would be less for younger men and slightly more for older veterans.

7th GC Legion Victory a 2-1 Thriller at Highland

First-place Granite City improved its record to 7-1 in the Northern Division of the American Legion boys' baseball league with a come-from-behind 2-1 victory at Highland Tuesday evening.

The host team tallied its lone run in the fifth inning, and the run loomed large as the game progressed to the final inning with the visitors still scoreless. Two misers by Catcher Wasmuth of Highland turned the tide.

With its back to the wall, Granite City rallied in the top of the seventh with its principal goal the tying run. Larry Johnson coaxed a walk and moved to second base on a passed ball.

Gene Bryant bounced sharply toward third base but the ball took a bad hop past the infielder, going for a double. With the score then deadlocked at 1-1,

Bryant raced to third on a passed ball and the stage was set for what proved to be the winning strategy.

Run Squeezed Home

A squeeze play was attempted, with Larry Ripke bunting the ball and Bryant beating the throw to home plate.

With Bruce Thompson relieving Doug Winfield on the mound in the last half of the seventh inning, Highland was held and the victory was recorded. Each team totaled four hits.

Granite City will defend its division lead in two games to be played at Wilson Park this weekend. Alton will call at 6 p.m. Friday, and there will be a visit by the Collinsville squad at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Jayze vs. Sluggers

At the Ohio River's rate of fall, the sand bar at Mount City should be showing shortly, and that's always good news for lake striper fishermen.

Write off Harrisburg Lake for awhile; the city has tapped it to replenish two other holding lakes and fishing is at the zero point. Most of the holidaying miners in the area have headed for the Ohio with anglers, troutlines and nets.

Weekend returns were poor,

but leading into it, Bomber-deers

like Nick Masters of Carbondale reported a few large kills. John

Borger, Carbondale, notched a seven pounder and Masters took a six and a half. Peithman's best was five pounds.

Few bass at Grassy

Few bass showed at the Little

Grassy docks, although crappie fishing remains steady. Roger

Shodenth, Mt. Vernon, picked up a half dozen bass on the Super Sonic, biggest going two pounds. Bud Maher, Marissa, took 25 keep crappie and Hazel

Rosler, Columbia, caught 26, largest a pound and a half. Van

Johnson, Marion, Ind., hooked

five smallish bass on the Rapala and his partner, G. T. Richson, counted a half pound and three-quarter pound crappie on a fair trial development, Mayor Maerz remarked that "the city can't afford to gamble as you can with private funds. Consequently, we must be very careful to protect the public on the money we have on hand now."

He said he could not now disclose the name of the firm for the purpose for which the land is being considered, since plans by developers have yet to reach that stage. But he added that the development at that location could be beneficial to continued use of the bridge as a toll structure. He said a lease would be easier to arrange than a sale.

Incinerator Survey

A survey for a proposed incinerator for the cities of Madison and Venice, provided free of charge by the AKKON Manufacturing Co. of St. Louis, has been received, Mayor Maerz announced, and shows an overall cost of about $100,000.

The cost of the gas incinerator itself, with an automatic charger, would be about $70,000, according to the report. The mayor said, however, that the report did not provide a sufficient amount of data on the cost of operations.

It was referred to Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab, city consulting engineers, for further study. The plan provides for more than 28 tons of refuse per day and allows for natural growth of the community for 15 to 25 years. One or two men could operate the facility on a 16-hour basis, and it could be operated on a 24-hour basis if necessary, he said.

Mayor Maerz recalled that a previous quotation of $80,000 was made by the McGarry Co. of St. Louis for a 100-ton unit, but those with automatic chargers are more expensive.

He added that he and Mayor John Lee of Venice are in agreement that further study is required. He said he favors the old pump station area as a site for the operation.

Commissioner Resigns

During the meeting the council accepted the resignation of Stanley Krakowski as a member of the board of fire and police commissioners, as he is now employed as an inspector by the Illinois secretary of state and the two positions may be in conflict.

The council approved the appointment of Edward D. Appliance Co. of Madison for $126, and the bill was approved at the meeting. The mayor said it is the most modern and best piece of equipment of its type and was available only through the one outlet. He noted the portable aspects (compact at 16 pounds) and said it will be available for other public meetings.

It was announced that efforts still are being made to establish a water and telephone bill collection agency at Hickson's store, which now represents Illinois Power Co. in that capacity.

Hits Parked Car

A truck driven by Clifford Potts, 50, Rural Route One, collided with a parked car owned by Karl Gotschalk, 41, of St. Louis, at 12th street and Madison avenue at 1 p.m. Wednesday. Police said Potts reported that the front wheels on his vehicle began shaking, causing him to run into the parked auto.

Announce Plan For Church Center

Officers of First Church of Christ, Scientist, 2560 Delmar avenue, were notified today of plans for construction of a 15-acre "church center" for the expanding world headquarters of the Christian Science movement.

The announcement was made in a letter to Granite City church officers from the board of directors of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The master plan, prepared by a New York firm of architects, also covers an additional 16 acres of church-owned land around the center.

On this surrounding land the plan calls for leases of private redevelopment to construct 3500 new middle income apartment units plus retail shops, office space, improved pedestrian ways and underground parking facilities. Cost of this privately developed phase is figured at $63,000,000 or more.

The total project, combining both church and private sectors, covers 31 acres and would be constructed in stages over a period of six to ten years.

Parked Auto Damaged

A parked car owned by Frank Niehaus of 2439 Madison avenue was damaged on the left side at 2:55 p.m. Wednesday when it was struck by a truck driven by Ralph Grammann of St. Louis at 13th street and Madison avenue. Madison Grammann told police he was making a right turn from Madison avenue onto 13th street when the rear tire of his truck caught on the rear of the Niehaus car.

Injured Trainman Still Patient in Hospital

James Gardner, 39, a Chicago & Northwestern Railway employee who lives at 22 Wilshire Manor, remained in St. Elizabeth Hospital today for treatment of injuries received Monday afternoon when a train collided with the rear of another on tracks near the Reilly Y&A line of railroad cars.

Chemical Co. on the Edwardsville road. Gardner was riding in the caboose at the time of the collision and suffered facial cuts and bruises and a back injury. An Illinois Terminal engine incurred slight damage when it rounded a curve and struck the rear of a line of railroad cars.

Area's Rainfall 1.38-Inch Below Normal for 6 Months

Quad-City area rainfall was 1.38-inch below normal for the six-month period that ended yesterday with 16.71 inches of precipitation recorded for the year at the gauge maintained by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers at the Chain of Rocks canal locks.

The total for June was 3.94 inches with rain recorded on 11 days. The heaviest precipitation for the month was on the last day—3.5 inches. There also was 70-inch recorded on Tuesday morning. The gauge is read at 8 a.m. each day.

June's 3.94 inches was just 3.5-inch under the 4.29-inch normal precipitation. The rains during the month were 40-inch on June 2, which was preceded by a trace less than a hundredth of an inch on June 1.

There was a .03-inch fall on June 6, .35-inch on June 7, .05-inch on June 12, .65-inch on June 21, .26-inch on June 23, .60-inch on June 24, .70-inch on June 29 and .85-inch on June 30.

A breakdown of the area's precipitation by months follows: January, 2.88 inches; February, 1.67 inch; March, 1.81 inch; April, 5.11 inches; May, 1.27 inch, and June, 3.97 inches.

More Library Research Papers To Be Available

Quad-Cityans will be able to obtain through their local libraries an increased variety and depth of research and reference materials as a result of plans for four library research centers in Illinois, it was announced today.

Alphonse F. Trezza, chairman of the Illinois Library Association's Library Development Committee, reported that immediate establishment of the centers will cost for Illinois $500,000 in federal taxes available to libraries.

Total federal Library Services and Construction Act funds earmarked for Illinois amounted to $1,207,382, of which a half million dollars would have gone unused.

The $500,000 was obtained through quick action by Trezza's committee and a newly-established Committee for Illinois Research and Reference Centers.

In developing a program for each of the proposed centers, a sum of $125,000 has been earmarked for each center, to be established at the Chicago Public Library, Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana and the Illinois State Library in Springfield.

Deadline Met
The federal taxes are part of those allocated for use in this state during 1965-66. Deadline for plans for use of the funds was yesterday, June 30.

The three local library board presidents, Gerald Walters of Granite City, Mrs. L. C. Harlan of Madison and Frank DeWitt of Venice, told the Press-Record their libraries already utilize the Illinois State Library book loan program and will make an early study of similar utilization of loaned research material.

DeWitt pointed out that the present loan service has made a much wider range of volumes available to Venice residents than would otherwise be possible.

Mrs. Harlan praised the prompt service, noting that books are received in Madison two days after a request is submitted. Loaned volumes continue circulating in the state after local usage.

Walters explained that the state program is helpful not only in securing books not on hand here but also in obtaining extra copies of a book already available here but in great demand.

Frequent Use by Students
Among those making frequent use of the loan service are secondary and college students in the Quad-City area.

New Operator Named For City Hall Phones

Mrs. Margie Hall, 2664 East 28th street, was appointed switchboard operator for the city hall, and her selection by Mayor Parney was confirmed Monday night by the city council. She will start the job July 1.

Mrs. Hall replaces Mrs. Cecilia Stucke.

"The council currently has under consideration the relocation of the switchboard from the anteroom in the mayor's third floor office suite to the second floor lobby, where the operator also could serve as an information clerk to aid city hall visitors."

Airman Paskel Selected For Technical Training

Airman David P. Paskel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Paskel of 939 Greenwood street, Madison, has completed Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Airman Paskel has been selected for technical training as an accounting and finance specialist at the Air Training Command (ATC) school at Sheppard AFB, Tex. The airman, a 1961 graduate of Assumption high school, East St. Louis, attended Southwestern Illinois University, Alton, and St. Louis University.

ters are part of the Plan for Public Library Development in Illinois sponsored by the Illinois Library Association and passed by the Illinois General Assembly in its 1965 session. The Library Development Committee developed the program for the centers when the $500,000 oversight was noted by DeLagayette Reed, deputy state librarian. The new research center committee then was organized, with Dr. Alex Ladenson, assistant Chicago librarian, as chairman.

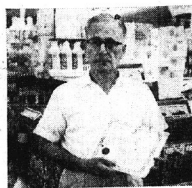

"Because of the General Assembly's quick action on the plan for library development, we were able to save money for the state," Trezza commented.

"We are confident Gov. Kerner will sign the bill into law and enable Illinois citizens to have this valuable research service." Residents will be able to get research and reference materials through the interlibrary loan service. Most loans so far have been handled through Springfield, but research materials are to be sent from any of the four centers to any participating library in the state.

Others on the new committee besides Dr. Ladenson and Reed are Robert B. Downs of the University of Illinois and Gertrude Gschelke of Chicago.

Pupils in Special GC Summer School Enjoying Sessions

Summer school isn't always a bore, 250 select Granite City elementary students are discovering as part of program at Niedringhaus school for gifted children. The project which is supported by the state is co-sponsored by the school district and Northwestern Illinois University and started this week.

Twenty-six Granite City elementary teachers, a librarian, and secretary are taking part in the program which is being supervised by Mrs. Sally Sowell. A major purpose of the project is to teach teachers proper methods of working with the gifted child. Subjects to be covered in the four-week session include the arts, language and social studies.

The pupils themselves have confided in parents that they are enjoying the new-type school sessions.

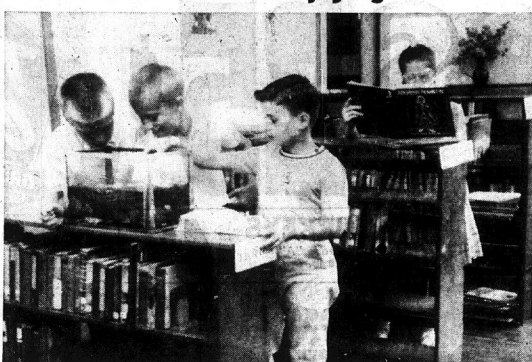

The three-hour morning sessions have eliminated the conventional "question-answer" form of teaching as well as standard textbooks. The "team-teaching" approach is being applied with a group of instructors working with each of the three grades, fourth through sixth, divided into three sections. In this method of teaching in a seminar-type arrangement the young participants in the group discussion and learn to use his own initiative. Mrs. Sowell explained.

Pupils Recommended
Admission to the workshop was limited to an elite number of advanced and gifted youngsters. The pupils were recommended by their elementary teachers throughout the Granite City school system, based upon a variety of requirements.

Audio-visual aids have been provided by the Encyclopedia Britannica. A temporary library has been established with several hundred books available for the students. Many books were obtained from the SIU library at Carbondale. Reference books are also available for the student's library period.

Several classes have obtained specialized literature on the development of the area around them from corporations and industries in the two-state metropolitan area. Field trips to metropolitan points of interest are planned.

The overall hope of the program is that the instructors participating in the project will use the knowledge they will gain in the classroom when the school term resumes. The instructors spend the afternoon in three-hour seminar sessions held under the direction of Dr. Earl Morris, at the Northwestern Illinois University's East St. Louis campus.

SELF-TEACHING through observation and reading is part of the four-week program for "gifted children" being conducted at Niedringhaus school. Looking at an aquarium are Mike Ahrens, Lon Weaver and Richard Wargin jr., who are comparing the aquatic life to an illustration in the book. At the biography book shelf is Ruth Jameson. The sixth grade students are taking advantage of their library period during which they learn how to use the resources available.

By Press-Record Staff Photographer

INTENSIVE RESEARCH being conducted in the reference corner of the temporary library for the summer school workshop. Here two fifth graders, Jayne Matros and Debbie Nagel, participate in the independent study program. The project is designed to teach the teacher how to best help the advanced or gifted child. The students learn self-reliance and how to use their initiative in study and research.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles were married June 26, 1925, in Edwardsville. Mrs. Miles is a former resident of Venice, and her husband formerly resided in St. Louis.

MRS. PYLE DEDICATES TO EVENING CIRCLE

Mrs. Bea Pyle entertained the Evening circle of the Nanook Presbyterian Church, Tuesday evening in her home, 8 Terrace lane, for its final meeting of this season.

Volunteers Needed to Aid 'Head Start' Program

Volunteers to assist in "Project Head Start," slated to begin Tuesday at six centers in Granite City, are being sought by the local PTA administrator, Raymond Jones, who is asking those interested to contact him at TR-2250.

About 75 youngsters are enrolled to date in the pre-kindergarten preparation program, which will continue for eight weeks in centers at Logan, Washington, Webster, Marshall and Emerson grade schools and the Kirkpatrick Homes recreation hall.

Registration was accomplished, Jones relates, with the aid of the Granite City PTA Area Council, local PTA units and the Kirkpatrick Homes Mothers' Club. Mrs. Lucille Caban, council president, Mrs. Kathleen Tallock and Mrs. Dorothy Linton have acted as liaison with the local school units, the director said.

Local teachers include Mrs. David Morgan and Mrs. Sophia Greene of the Granite City Housing Authority have coordinated registration with the Kirkpatrick Homes club. Jones points out that volunteers who are willing to serve in the capacities of "big brother or sister, or a grandmother or grandparent" would be invaluable to the success of the program. He added that this group could be instrumental in storytelling, as crosswalk helpers, on field trips to the zoo or train station, to share in games, or "to put a bandage on a skinned finger or sew a hole in a trouser knee."

Plan Group Adopts Budget; Six-Year Pact for Director

A $149,180 budget for the calendar year of 1965 was adopted by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission at a dinner meeting Monday evening at the Rose Bowl. No changes were made in the budget presented at a public hearing May 13.

Operating costs of the planning body were estimated at $300 a month and represented $41,095 of the budgeted expenditures. The figure includes $19,595 for a land use and land characteristics study.

Also budgeted were $8825 for capital costs, $60,000 for staffing and $38,000 for the land study salaries.

May Modify Study
Executive Director Theodore H. Mikesell said it may be necessary to modify the scope of the land use and characteristics study but that it has not been eliminated from current plans.

An original 1965 state appropriation request of $300,000 for the next biennium was later revised to $100,000 by the commission, and an actual General Assembly appropriation of $75,000 appeared likely early this week. The commission also receives funds from other governmental sources to carry out specified tasks.

Pending legislation also included expansion of the commission's territory to include Monroe county. The county was represented among the group of 34 meeting here Monday night.

New Commissioners
New commissioners at the session included Charles Maves of the Edwardsville plan commission, Edwin Lemon of the Alton plan commission, Frank Heiligenstein of the Freeburg planning group and William Klein of the Smithton plan commission.

David Morgan represented William F. Hoelscher, Granite City Plan Commission chairman, and other Quad-Cityans attending included Madison Mayor Stephen Maerz, Nameeki Township Supervisor Harry Briggs and C. E. Townsend.

James Krause of East St. Louis, chairman, will represent the commission on the Regional Industrial Development Corporation.

A six-year appointment of Mikesell as executive director was approved, with pay to be negotiated each two years. A committee will make a study and recommend a salary level for the period starting today.

Mikesell was authorized to adjust the pay of four staff members according to provisions of a previously-adopted salary schedule.

County Building Needs
The director reported that a study of St. Clair county building needs is 60% complete and should be finished by early September. A contract has been signed for a similar study in Madison county and it will be started within the next month.

He said the commission is working with eight communities in southeast St. Clair county to develop coordinated local planning programs.

Quarterly meetings of the commission were set for the third Thursday of March, June, September and December.

A report showed $37,500 discussed between formation of the commission on Oct. 4, 1963, and April 12, 1965. For March, 16 through June 22 of this year, receipts were $8288 and expenditures $14,969, reducing the cash balance from $8599 to $1918.

Venice Man Charged With Armed Robbery

Percy J. Wilkinson, 31, of 203 Ashbrook street, Venice, was arrested at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday by Granite City police on a charge of armed robbery. He waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to the Madison county grand jury by Magistrate Hiscott, who set property bond at $500.

He is charged with robbing the Park tavern, East 20th street and Park avenue, last April 1. At the time two men, including one wielding a pistol, forced the bartender and three customers to a back room while one held them there and the other rifled the cash register and took money from a cigar box and glass. About $207 was taken. A wallet containing $8 to $7 also was taken from Fridolent Keln, 1931 Park avenue, who was a customer.

Wilkinson appeared at the police station after detectives obtained descriptions from witnesses and then questioned acquaintances.

MORE ABOUT
New Approach

Illinois University completed early this year points out Madison and St. Clair counties now have a total population of 530,000 and by 1970 the figure will hit 650,000.

The inadequacy of sufficient recreational areas within the 1607 square mile area of the two counties (larger than the state of Rhode Island) was stressed, and the accessibility of the Horseshoe Lake area within the network of interstate, state and county highways with many approaches from all sections of the two counties was noted.

In addition to the estimated 650,000 two-county population by 1970, the report also points out that nearby Southwestern Illinois University will have 20,000 students in 10 years.

Authority Sought
Karandjoff said the commis-

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

sion is seeking authority from the state for either the commission or another designated agency to acquire, develop and operate the state park.

The minimum acreage, the commissioners said, would be 2000, but that 4000 additional acres of marshy lands also could be utilized in programs for picnicking, boating, fishing, camping and for recreational and cultural areas.

The shoreline of the lake measures nearly 12 1/2 miles. Dredging is planned to provide an adequate depth for boating and fishing.

Land wanted for the park would include 1602 acres of lake bottom, 386-acre island, 1119 acres shore land, 216 acres corridor land for a possible connection with Cahokia Mounds state park and 4000 acres marshy tributary land.

Auxiliary Awards Two Nursing Scholarships

The St. Elizabeth Hospital Auxiliary Monday evening awarded one-year nursing scholarships to Miss Doris Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kapsic, 2839 Pershing avenue, and Miss Carolyn Hines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hines, 2420 Glen place. It was the second award to Miss Hines.

Miss Ray will be attending the St. Louis City Hospital Nursing School and Miss Hines will begin her second year at Barnes Hospital Nursing School. Because Miss Hines could not attend to receive the award, her mother accepted it for her.

Miss Mary Rose Tourse, who received a one-year scholarship last year from the Auxiliary, did not need a second one this year, since she received a scholarship for the coming year from DePaul Hospital.

Miss Irene Argelan, president of the Auxiliary, presented the awards.

Talks With LBJ, Other Leaders Highlight Trip

A dinner dance at the White House, a chance to meet President Johnson and all his cabinet and an opportunity to confer with outstanding educators, diplomats and business leaders highlighted a stay in Washington, D.C., for Capt. Raymond Humphrey of Granite City, who returned here Tuesday night.

While not one of 15 chosen as 1965-66 White House Fellows, the Army Depot provost marshal and intelligence officer was honored as one of 45 young Americans with outstanding academic and leadership records, chosen from among 8000 applicants. He was invited to apply again next year, and plans to do so.

A surprise development was President Johnson's invitation to the finalists' wives to fly to Washington for Monday's activities, which included a televised presidential press conference, a reception given by Vice-President Humphrey at Blair House, a banquet on the south lawn of the White House and dancing under the stars to the music of the Marine Corps Band.

Capt. Humphrey was one of two Army men in the group and the only finalist with only a bachelor degree, the others all having master or doctorate degrees. There were three women; none of them won, to the consternation of the president, who has made a point in his administration of stressing equal opportunities for women.

The local people had an opportunity for extended conversations with President and Mrs. Johnson, Vice-President and Mrs. Humphrey—who noted the similarity in names—and the cabinet officials and White House Fellowship commissioners, who had conducted interviews at the 1200-acre Ainsie estate outside Washington.

Winners will spend the next year participating in top-level activity as members of the White House and cabinet staffs, and many may stay on in Washington after the year. Capt. Humphrey hopes to take additional college work relating to national security, diplomacy and government. His two-and-a-half-year stay here will end July 20.

He discussed the trip in a talk to the Madison Rotary club yesterday. Outgoing President Larry Palkes presided.

FAMILY VISIT
Mr. and Mrs. James Smith and family spent the weekend here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Smith of Rhodes street and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sullivan of Nameoki drive. The Smiths then returned to their home in North Pekin, Ill.

Miss Beverly Lowe, 1232 Edwardville road, had an overnight guest Tuesday a cousin, Miss Barbara Sykes of Huntsville, Ala.

Betty Kay Gerling, 1204 Kirkpatrick House, underwent a tonsillectomy Wednesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

VISITORS HONORED

A family get-together was enjoyed Tuesday evening at Wilson Park, honoring the family of James Sykes of Huntsville, Ala. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Bertha Sykes, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Conter and son, Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Cowin and children, Ivan Lynn, Robin and Randy, Mr. and Mrs. Arvil Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lowe and daughter, Beverly, and son, Don, Mr. Kathryn Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Stogdill, Mrs. Doris Jordan and daughter, Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clutts and children, Pam and Ralph Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wall and granddaughter, Jackie Joe Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Tipster and family, Mrs. Pansy LeMaster and children, Mrs. Jewell LeMaster, Mrs. Erma Curtis and daughter, Marcia, and the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Sykes and daughters, Linda, Barbara and Lois.

Some Games Played Despite Rainy Season

Rain and wet grounds again hampered boys baseball action in the Quad-Cities this week, but some games were completed where diamond conditions permitted.

The Mitchell League was determined to avert a complete washout as the Yankees defeated the Orioles 14-0 on the grass in a make-up game Tuesday. Robert Martin hit three home runs for the winners.

Jim Mank hurried shutout ball and fanned 10 batters as Belmore Tys defeated the St. Elizabeth Cardinals in Joe Loftus bantam play Tuesday, while on the same day, Short homered in a Smokey Patterson midget game.

On Wednesday, Brad Bickhaus chalked up 20 strikeouts and gave up only two hits in a Cub win in the Salty Parker League, and Kovack pitched a one-hit performance in the Jim Holler midget division.

Extravagance

Probe Petitioned In Barnes Murder

Petitions demanding an immediate grand jury investigation into the murder of Billy G. Barnes, a Nickel Plate Railroad telegrapher of Washington Park, 3½ years ago, are being circulated through Madison county in an attempt to dispose of an old charge against Robert L. Niehaus, 41, formerly of Granite City but now living in Troy.

Barnes was shot to death Oct. 26, 1961, in his car on a side road off Route 162 south of the Blast Furnace plant and near the railroad tower where he worked. Niehaus was charged as an accessory before the fact in the fatal shooting. Arrested at the same time was Luther Paul, 36, of Granite City. Both are free on $10,000 bonds. While the case has been bound over to the grand jury, it never has been presented for grand jury consideration.

Niehaus maintains that he is innocent of the charge and wants the charge dropped or his case presented so that he will have an opportunity to clear his name in court.

Nickel Plate Railroad Investigator J. Robert Scott said that he learned Niehaus and his friends are circulating the petition, and that while he, Scott, is taking no part in it, "Niehaus is doing everything he can to get his day in court."

The petitions were due to be filed with the chief justice of the Third Illinois Judicial District at Edwardsville today.

Madison Bar Forms Legal Aid Society

A federal grant under the Federal Economic Opportunity (War on Poverty) Act to finance the operation of a legal aid society in Madison county will be sought by the Madison County Bar Association. It was announced following a decision by the association to set up such an organization. The association voted in a meeting at Edwardsville Tuesday night to establish a legal aid society.

Such a society would provide legal advice to persons who cannot afford to hire their own attorney and would be active primarily in civil cases. Indigent persons in criminal cases already are provided counsel by the Public Defender who is paid by the county.

Magistrate Joseph Kelleher told attorneys at the bar association meeting Tuesday night that under the War on Poverty Act, the federal government will pay for 50% of the cost of operating the legal aid society if the local organization can provide 10% of the cost. Application for the federal grant is expected to be made soon.

TRASH AND RUBBISH scattered over a wide area is an off-the-highway view at the landfill site on Chouteau Island near the approach to the Chain of Rocks bridge, where the dump operator says he keeps the rubbish turned over by bulldozers at all times, but which Chouteau township officials claim is an eyesore, a health menace and a zoning violation. Chouteau Supervisor Joseph Troecki is seeking zoning board action against the site and threatens to seek an injunction against Missouri haulers who dump trash and rubbish in Chouteau township.

Chouteau May Enjoin Missouri Haulers

Chouteau township officials will seek an injunction in an attempt to stop Missouri haulers from dumping trash and garbage in a landfill refuse site on Chouteau Island, or any other disposal site in the township, Joseph Troecki, supervisor and chairman of the Chouteau township board of health, said Wednesday.

"Troecki commented '90% of our difficulty with garbage and trash disposal is presented by Missouri haulers,'" Troecki also said that action also is to be planned to clean up or, if possible, eliminate the Chouteau Island landfill near the Chain of Rocks bridge entrance on old U. S. Bypass 66-40.

He charged that refuse dumped on the site is not being covered and that paper and cardboard "litters the area and blows on to automobiles." Troecki said the odor from the area is offensive and that the entire situation presents an ugly picture to persons entering Illinois from Missouri across the bridge.

Leo Abel of Madison, manager of the Chouteau Island Landfill Corp., which operates the dumping ground, has said, however, that no liquid garbage is dumped in the area and that refuse dumped there is covered daily by bulldozers.

Combination Problem
Troecki said that correction of such places is a combined zoning and health problem and that the township health board, working in conjunction with the zoning board, may be able to accomplish much in cleaning up such locations. The supervisor said that he had not been encouraged by attorneys as to his prospects for obtaining an injunction restraining Missouri haulers from dumping in Chouteau township grounds, but that he intends to "check further and see if we can't get such an injunction."

"If we can't get it done by injunction, perhaps we can take legal action as the board of health," Troecki said, adding that "we intend to stop the unsanitary conditions caused by open dumping in the area."

At the same time the supervisor said the township will oppose any attempt by any other community in the area to obtain property in Chouteau township for landfill purposes.

"We not only object to other communities dumping their garbage in our township, but if there is any land available for landfill operations, the time undoubtedly will come when Chouteau township will need it for its own use."

Turn Over Violations
Chouteau township, working with Zoning Director Jack Clifford of Edwardsville, has been conducting an intensive "clean-up" campaign through enforcement of zoning laws. Two weeks ago, township officials turned over to the zoning board a total of 189 violations which the zoning board is now checking, and on which action is expected to be taken soon.

Many of these places involve storage of junk autos and removal of these will be ordered. Violators will be given an opportunity to correct any alleged violations, but upon failure to do so will be named in warrants charging violation of the zoning or health codes.

Award $28,400 for Land Needed for SWIU Campus

Wilbur Gehring, owner of a 40.33-acre tract of land along the Mississippi River, left to the University of Southern Illinois at Carbondale, has been awarded $28,400 for the land.

The award was made in a jury verdict after the jurors inspected the property and returned their verdict to Jersey County Circuit Judge Lee White, presiding in the condemnation suit at Edwardsville.

Construction Gives Clues To Quality of Men's Slacks

"More informal living and its accompanying leisure time activities have made casual and sports slacks important items of apparel for men and boys wardrobes," says Mr. Eric Sohn, University of Illinois extension textiles and clothing specialist. Here are some pointers on shopping for these articles:

Be aware of current style features. Styles differ particularly in waistbands and pleats. In traditional-style slacks, the waistband is a continuous band around the entire top of the trousers, with loops for the belt. Bar-tacked loops are more durable than loops without bar-tacks. Other slacks have a continental-style waistband, which is only one of the front. The back waistline is faced. Usually these trousers have an adjustable fastening at the side seams. This type of waistband needs a stiff lining fabric to prevent curling.

Check slacks for signs of quality construction. Three key areas are the waistband, seams and pockets.

Good-quality waistbands are completely sewn down to hide raw seams and other inner construction and to improve durability. Some waistbands are made of three or four separate pieces sewn together to increase the curved or contour fit at the waistline.

All raw seams should have a serged finish, a type of machine overcasting, to prevent raveling.

Good-quality pockets are made of good-quality cotton twill or similar material. Raw edges at the top of the pocket are completely hidden. Back pockets may be made in one or two pieces. Better quality slacks are made with a one-piece pocket with double seaming all around. Side pockets are also double-seamed and are stitched flat into the side seam. No puckering or buckling shows. Changes in construction techniques have been made as types of fabrics and the processes used on them have changed. For example, plain seams are often used instead of the traditional flat-fall seams. Because this change eliminates topstitching, puckering problems are reduced.

Make sure that slacks fit before buying them. Check these points:

Straight-hanging creases. Creases should fall straight down over the center of the knee cap.

Rise (measurement from front from crotch to waistband). Ind-vidual build determines whether a low or high rise is best. For example, if the individual is extra tall, he will need a high-rise model. Where he prefers the waistband to fall will determine which style he will prefer. The teen-ager who likes to wear his slacks on his hips will prefer the over-rise model.

Stride (the amount of fabric from the crotch to about 10 inches down the inside seam). The balance of the cut and the amount of fabric in this area will determine the comfort of slacks in walking. If there isn't enough slack in this area, the slacks and Dymel, can be machine washed in lukewarm water and Taper. The amount of taper in a lower trouser leg usually differs three inches between cuff and knee, such as 17 inches around the pant leg at the cuff and 20 inches around at the knee.

Wash Blankets Before Storage. Now is the time to store your blankets for the summer. But before you pack them away, it's wise to wash or dryclean them if they show signs of soil. The following information will aid you in washing blankets: Blankets made of synthetic materials such as Acrilan, Orlon, Creslan and Dymel, can be machine washed in lukewarm water and shrinkage handle and agitate them as little and as gently as possible.

In most cases dryer-drying causes wool blankets to shrink more than air-drying does. So, if possible, hang blankets outside in the shade over several lines to dry.

For specific instructions about laundering any kind of blanket, check the label from the blanket manufacturer. Brushing blankets before and after storing renews their nap. Brushing is important because the thickness of the nap determines the warmth of the blanket.

A Little Bleach Goes A Long Way

Bleaching is not a substitute for good laundering practices. It may remove the yellowing associated with aging, stains and dyes transferred from other fabrics. However, bleach will not remove grease, soot or clay-type soil.

If you use hot water and enough detergent, you should not need to bleach more often than every fifth to fifteenth laundering. Bleaching with strong chlorine bleaches will eventually weaken fabric strength and shorten wear life.

Those that contain chlorine. Granite City PRESS-RECORD

These bleaches cannot be used on silk, wool or acetate and should be used with great care on conventional rayon, since it is already weak. Also, these bleaches yellow or damage the finish on many wash-and-wear cottons. Where you cannot use chlorine bleaches, you can probably use peroxide bleaches. These bleaches do little damage but are less effective than the chlorine types. So be sure to treat fabrics when stains are fresh. One of the common peroxide bleaches you can use on some fabrics is hydro-peroxide. This bleach is used commercially in mills to whiten from other fabrics.

wool and silk. These fibers gradually become creamy white with use, but you can whiten them again with the bleach. Buy the peroxide in the 10 percent concentration sold for hair use, and follow the directions on the bottle.

The color removers sold by home dye companies are also often effective bleaches for white fabrics. Using a color remover is often the best way to combat the gen peroxide. This bleach is used commercially in mills to whiten from other fabrics.

GCAARC Installs

Treasurer, Secretary

Granite City Association for Aid to Retarded Children held its annual installation of officers Monday evening at St. John United Church of Christ. Members also witnessed the presentation of the cub pack and scout troop charters, marking the local organization as one of three groups in the entire country which sponsors a scouting program for retarded youngsters.

New executives installed were Mrs. Helen DeBuz, treasurer, and Mrs. Mary Lou Neumann, secretary. They will join Mrs. Evelyn Gavin, GCAARC president, and Eugene Ponder, vice-president, who will continue in office for the second year of their two-year terms.

A special guest introduced was Clarence Windsor, Boy Scout neighborhood commissioner, who presented the charters to Ponder, acting institutional representative, who in turn made the official presentation to Mrs. Gavin.

Reports on the unique scouting program were given by cubmaster Albert Beedle and Scoutmaster Frank Kraus, who heads the newly-organized neighborhood patrol. Boys from the two groups conducted a flag ceremony in observance of the occasion.

In other business, Mrs. Gavin and Mrs. Neumann acted as delegates to the annual five-day convention of the National Association for Retarded Children to be held in New York City in late September. Mrs. Calvin Black gave a resume on activities at the recently-concluded, two-week summer day camp program at Wilson Park, which was attended by 36 children.

Ruling Sought on Liquor License Bond Requirement

A clarification or requirements of the city liquor control ordinance as to whether license applications require surety or property bonds was requested of the city attorney by the Granite City council Monday night. The request was made after action of one application was deferred because it contained only a property bond.

On motion by Alderman Walter Nomm, the council approved applications for the Tri-City Disabled Veterans, for Raymond Kelly at the Bellefonte Shopping Center, and for the Tri-City Post of American Legion.

Nomm pointed out that he had a fourth application but that he did not believe it would be approved because it contained only a property bond rather than a surety bond. On suggestion of Mayor Partney, Nomm agreed to refer the application back to committee for further checking, rather than reject it in Monday's session.

This brought objection from Alderman Bartosiak who said the liquor ordinance requires only a property bond and that the application in question had complied with terms of the ordinance. Mayor Partney pointed out that he believed the council had agreed some time ago to expand this requirement to demand surety bond.

Nomm said he would ask the city attorney for a ruling in the matter and a clarification of the requirements as they now exist under present liquor control ordinances.

Council Debates, Delays Again On Betinec Booklet

Mayor Partney's repeated efforts to get the city council to rapidly dispose of old business so it could start working on a new city budget went for naught Monday night when the 16 aldermen became embroiled in a lengthy debate of a line item subject—the booklet printed by former alderwoman Gabrielle Betinec prior to last April's election.

The argument, which involved payment of a printing bill at the Tri-City Printing Co., ended again without settlement, after Mayor Partney finally banged the gavel and told Walter Nomm, who had initiated the subject, that "this was a bad time to bring this up." The council spent about 20 minutes discussing the Betinec booklet, its purposes, the printing bill and what the city should do about it. Nomm said the discussion ruling while the council was acting on routine claims. He suggested that since a new budget was to be drafted and the city was starting a new fiscal year, the old bill for printing the booklet, was still unsettled and that it should be determined, one way or another, whether the city is going to pay it.

Nomm and several other aldermen contended that the council had agreed to pay the printing bill, or at least had given Mrs. Betinec that impression when she proceeded with publication of the booklet entitled "The Betinec Profile," a pamphlet detailing city government procedure and facts about Granite City and its municipal operation. Nomm said he believed the bill was a legitimate one and that the city should not start its new year with old bills "hanging over."

Copyrighted Booklet
Alderman Clyde Boyd objected, however, that Mrs. Betinec had copyrighted the booklet and therefore "owns it lock, stock and barrel" and she would be entitled to any returns that might make in the future. Charles Moellen claimed the book was not published on the authority of the council.

"But," said Moellen, "I feel sorry for the lady. We apparently made a mistake in what we indicated we would do and the money is due for the printing. I don't think we can legitimately spend the taxpayers' money for this purpose, but if she will make an accounting for the books that have been sold and bring in the rest of the books that were printed, I am willing to dig into my own personal funds to share the cost of the printing bill."

House Burglary Attempt

Edward Binger, 2440 Grand avenue, reported to police that an attempt was made to enter his home between noon and 3 p.m. Monday. He said there were several pry marks on the door and that the would-be burglar also had apparently put his shoulder to the door in an attempt to push it open. The inside framework had been knocked loose. Entry was not gained.

Nomm insisted that the matter should be settled "one way or another" and at this point, Mayor Partney broke in and told Nomm "you didn't show good timing when you brought this thing up now. We have a lot of work to do here tonight." The debate ended with a decision to call upon Mrs. Betinec to account for the number of booklets that had been published, the number that had been distributed and sold, to turn in the funds collected for books already sold along with the remaining booklets, so that the council can act later on payment of the outstanding balance of the bill.

Girl Scouts Out Camping At Ouatoga, Gillespie

One hundred and fourteen campers are living in the Girl Scout program out of doors at Ouatoga, four from East St. Camp Ouatoga in Pere Marquette Park under the auspices of the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council. They are learning ways to live comfortably in a primitive setting as well as ways of friendship and understanding.

A trained adult staff, with Mrs. Richard Cryer as camp director, guides and guards the young Scouts as they compress months of growing-up time into two weeks.

Thirty specially qualified campers are registered in the Viking unit based, not at Ouatoga, but in tents on the shore of Gillespie Lake. Special emphasis for this unit are swimming, sailing and canoeing. The unit is composed of Girl Scouts entering eighth through 12th grades who have had previous primitive camping experience. Each girl must hold a Red Cross swimmer certificate.

The sailboats used in Viking are loaned to the council by Col. and Mrs. Richard Cryer, who are sailing enthusiasts. The canoes are recent gifts to the council from a graduating Girl Scout troop, and the "Chanyate" from the Exchange Club of Alton.

Ouatoga registration includes 21 girls from Belleville, 18 from East St. Louis, 15 from Alton, 14 from the Quad-Cities, 11 from Edwardsville, nine from Collinsville, six from Lebanon, five each from Scott AFB and Wood River, three from Godfrey, two each from Matissa, Mascoutah and O'Fallon, and one from Moline.

Special Eagle Court Held for Charles Hays

Charles Hays, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hays, 2843 State street, advanced to Eagle Scout rank in a special Eagle court of honor held at the Mitchell parish hall last week by Boy Scout Troop 41.

Neighborhood Chairman Zane Miller was master-of-ceremonies, and Rev. Robert J. Baumann, pastor of St. Peter United Church of Christ, offered the invocation. The scout was escorted to his seat by Life Scout honor guards, Robert Hays and Randy Blackard.

George Bucle sr. gave the complete scouting history of the award recipient, who has been active in the scout movement since 1938. Chubok, Mount Council Field Executive Clay Brienhan gave the challenge to continue in scouting, teach others and rededicate himself to high ideals.

Scoutmaster Russell Seiph presented Hays to the court, composed of Dr. Leo Coleman, University district training chairman; G. Rollin Hagan, council president; Robert Polley, Troop 41 committeeman; and George Bucle sr., assistant scoutmaster of the troop. Each of the six lighted candles to represent the 12 points of the scout law.

Seiph presented the Eagle pin to Mr. and Mrs. Hays to present to their son. Miller gave the scout a miniature Eagle pin for his mother, emblematic of parental faith, love and encouragement. The benediction was by Rev. John DiGiacomo of the Mitchell Presbyterian Church. A reception followed the ceremony.

Third Eagle scout from the troop in the past 25 years, he is a 1963 graduate of Granite City high school. He will attend Elmhurst College.

EAGLE SCOUT BADGE has been added to the 21 merit badges of Charles Hays, 17, a member of Mitchell Boy Scout Troop 41. He is shown with Scoutmaster Russell Seiph (right).

How to File Claim for Sonic Boom Damage

Because of the recent announcement by the Strategic Air Command (SAC) that B-58 "Hustler" bombers will be making supersonic practice bomb runs in this area, officials at Scott, Air Force Base are prepared to process claims for alleged property damage resulting from "sonic booms," a by-product of supersonic flight.

Local area residents may write to Sonic Booms, P.O. Drawer 614, Scott Air Force Base, Ill. The letter must state the time of the boom, the nature of the damage and how the damage was discovered.

The procedures for filing a claim may also be obtained by calling Adams 4-4030. Scott officials stress that claims must be in writing and will be processed in the order of receipt.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD Page 30 Thurs., July 1, 1965

Types of Damage
Although loud and disconcerting, Air Force has pointed out that sonic booms cannot cause damage to primary building structure or directly injure a person, although minor plaster and window damage have been recorded.

The practice bomb runs will be flown by SAC's B-58s starting today through Sept. 30 along two 40-mile-wide corridors which cross this Illinois-Missouri metropolitan area. The first corridor starts at a point near Winterest, Ia., and ends near Christopher, Ill. The other starts east of Little Rock, Ark., near Hazen, and ends a few miles south of Springfield, Ill. Supersonic flights along these routes may occur daily, but normally will not be scheduled between 10 p.m. and 7 a.m. A maximum of two runs daily will be flown over this area.

1500 Mph Flights
The bombers will fly at supersonic speeds up to mach 2 (1500 mph) at altitudes above 35,000 feet.

The purpose of the flights is to provide realistic training for the Army's NIKE units which must be able to detect and defend this area against enemy air attacks. Also, USAF combat crews gain supersonic operational proficiency in making practice bomb drops which are scored electronically.

Sonic booms result from an aircraft exceeding the speed of sound, when air forced ahead of the aircraft is compressed, causing cone-shaped shock waves which reach the ground in audible form.

Police Notes — Boy's Appeal and a Lockout

When in doubt—call police.

That's what a small boy did about midnight Monday when he discovered he was alone in his home in the 2800 block of Grand avenue.

A police car was enroute when the boy's father called to say his wife had left the house for a few minutes to pick him up at work.

At 1:40 a.m. Tuesday a wife who had been locked out of her apartment by her husband was given assistance and got inside. The incident occurred at Kirkpatrick Homes.

A $19,849 bill list was approved Monday night by Granite City council members. Included was the June payment of $12,291 to LaMear-United Disposal, Inc., for garbage-trash collections in June. The council separated from the bill list but later approved payment of $100 to William Jenkins, former assistant city inspector, for trips to Springfield in connection with the proposed takeover of the old St. Mark's Cemetery in East Granite. The city plans to turn the tract over to the park district for development of a quiet park.

City Will Fight Fires At Tri-City Port

Approval of a one-year contract to provide fire protection at the canal port of the Tri-City Port Authority was given Monday night by Granite City council members.

The city will provide the service for a fee of $300-a-year. However, city firemen and equipment will not be sent to the port if they are needed in the city. Also, the port district will assume liability in the event a city fireman is injured or equipment is damaged.

A similar contract was signed last year with Bi-State Development Agency. Both Bi-State and Tri-City Port have harbor facilities along the Chain of Rocks canal, outside the city limits.

13-FOOT LEVEL REACHED on the wall of the Biederman Furniture Co. store under construction at the Nameoki Village Shopping Center. The two-story brick structure which will have a 360 foot frontage along Nameoki road will contain 28,000 square feet of floor space. Edward Moore, the general contractor, said a mid-August opening is planned by the Biederman firm. Paul Worthen is the brick contractor for the project. Grading is also under way for a large parking lot.

City council members approved Monday night a resolution calling for installation of fire hydrants at two locations.

The resolution provided for erecting an agreement with the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. for installation of hydrants at 28th street and Circle drive and 26th street and Circle drive, both in North Granite.

Also given emergency treatment Monday was Bradley Lane, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lane, 2121 Missouri avenue, who suffered abrasions to his face, forehead and hand when he fell from the handlebars of a bicycle. The youngster was treated and released.

GC Council Pays Old Bill Owed Engineering Firm

Granite City council members in a busy, hectic session Monday night disposed of an old bill owed the David J. Johnston engineering firm of East St. Louis, but only by a vote of nine to six that followed a stormy argument.

The argument at one point involved a heated exchange between Alderman Whitmer and Johnston that developed when Johnston called for a point of order while Whitmer was urging approval of the Johnston bill.

"You're getting on your high horse tonight aren't you?" Whitmer flared, as Johnston attempted to interrupt him. "I'm getting fed up with this stuff and I'm just about ready to blow up."

Johnston repeated his call for a point of order, but Alderman Sternberg quieted the matter by interjecting a motion to approve payment of the bill in question, followed by a roll call vote and approval of the motion.

The argument started when Alderman Pernley made a motion that a representative of the engineering firm be permitted to discuss the bill with the city council. Charles Moerlein called for a point of order, saying the matter had been discussed by the council previously and at that point had been referred to the city attorney for consideration of several legal points. Mayor Pernley ruled for Moerlein.

Whitmer, however, took the floor and said that he believed the bill was legitimate and should be paid. He pointed out that the engineering work was for drainage and street car track removal on sections of 23rd and Adams streets.

Moerlein objected to payment pointing out that Johnston also had been hired by former Mayor Leonard Davis as city engineer and that Johnston could not be paid fees as a consulting engineer at the same time he was on the city payroll as a city engineer. The bill involved amounts to $274.

Moerlein told the council that payment of the bills could result in a taxpayers suit. "I won't go along for paying him as a city engineer and consulting fees, too," Moerlein said.

On the roll call vote, those voting no included Rutledge, Johnson, Dallas, Moerlein, Thompson, Fry and Green.

Several other bills owed the Johnston firm still are pending.

Without argument the council approved a motor fuel tax claim for the Johnston engineering firm in the amount of $432 for right-of-way work on the Nameoki road improvement project. The claim required the signature of the mayor to be approved by the state highway department and the council authorized the mayor to sign the claim in behalf of the Johnston firm. The amount will be paid by the state.

Police Clearing Streets Of Junker Autos

The police department's campaign to have old autos removed from parking places along streets increased Monday afternoon and evening when four owners were notified to have the autos off the street or pay a towing bill and possible storage charges.

The cars included two at least 15 years old, and were in the 2400 block of Waterman avenue, the 2200 block of Cleveland blvd., the 2800 block of Birch avenue and at 22nd street and Grand avenue.

Even Routine Issues Have Their Arguments

In a council session that was marked with arguments on practically every issue, even the passage of a routine ordinance to vacate an alley brought its quota of protest in Monday night's regular city council meeting.

The ordinance, introduced by Nomm, chairman of the ordinance committee, provided for vacating the alley in block 91 in the original town of Granite City, which is the alley at the old car barn site in the 1600 block between Madison and Grand avenues. The area recently was turned into a parking lot for the Granite City Steel Co.

After introduction of the ordinance, First Ward Alderman Dallas protested that the issue developed in his ward and "this is the first I've heard of it."

Dallas said, "I'm getting tired of hearing about matters in my ward through a council. This is the second time this has happened recently."

Mayor Pernley, who was rather disgusted anyway trying to get routine business out of the way so that council members could work on the budget, ignored the protest and called for a vote. Dallas was the only member to vote no.

Peace Corps Placement Test Scheduled July 10

An opportunity for Quad-City area residents to offer their abilities to the Peace Corps will come at 9 a.m. Saturday, July 10, at Room 414 of the East St. Louis Federal Building, 750 Missouri avenue.

The opportunity is the Peace Corps Placement Test, which is not passed or failed, and "you can't study for it." It measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language. If, for example, test scores indicate limited language-acquiring ability, the Peace Corps tries to place the applicant in an English-speaking area.

The test is used by the Peace Corps only as a tool in the matching of volunteers and jobs. The Peace Corps application remains the most important indicator of suitability for Peace Corps service. It must be filled out and brought to the exam unless previously submitted.

Applicants should plan on about one and a half hours at the testing center, unless they wish to take the Spanish or French language achievement test, which requires an additional hour.

An alternate location for the test is Room 1719, Federal Building, 1520 Market street, St. Louis.

The test will be repeated at East St. Louis, St. Louis, and the Peace Corps of other centers throughout the U. S. on Aug. 14 and Sept. 11.

Attorney General Rules in Series Of Legal Cases

Illinois Attorney General William Clark held in an opinion handed down at Springfield that there is no direct way by which a convict about to be discharged from the penitentiary, who is not charged with a sex crime, may be taken into court for further confinement because of his mental condition. However, Clark's opinion said, there is a legal way in which this can be accomplished. The opinion was delivered for State's Atty. Howard C. Clift of Randolph County.

In another ruling, Clark held that assessment information compiled by railroads is not to be considered a public record and as such need not be given to a newspaper. The ruling was made at the request of Marshall Korshak, director of the Department of Revenue.

The omission of a date from an information or indictment charging that a crime has been committed may be supplied by amendment, Clark maintains in still another ruling. Formal defects, Clark's opinion advised State's Atty. Alton A. Greer of Gallatin county, may be supplied by amendment. They are not confined to defects enumerated in the statute.

He also ruled that a municipality not situated on public water may take its water supply from a nearby public body of water. The State Department of Public Works and Buildings may not charge the municipality for such water, Clark advised Francis S. Lorenz, director of the Department of Public Works and Buildings.

Clark also delivered an opinion in which he held that the salaries of members of the board of review in counties of less than 150,000 population cannot be increased or diminished during their terms of office.

Clark also advised the Illinois Department of Revenue, upon its request for a ruling, that a person who sells paper cups, containers and similar products to a vendor who sells them full of food or drink to a person for human consumption is liable for the Retailers' Occupational (sales tax) payment on such articles.

JUNE STILL POPULAR

A total of 97,711 marriages were recorded in the state during 1964, Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health has announced.

According to the newly-completed statistics, last year's marriages increased 3751 over the 93,920 marriages recorded in 1963.

June remains the most popular month, with December, the next favored time for marrying. Divorces last year numbered 21,035, compared to 20,519 for 1963. Annulments totaled 235 last year and 246 for 1963. December leads other months for ending marriages in Illinois.

OPEN BURNING TABOO

A regulation prohibiting open burning of refuse and trade and salvage wastes is effective state-wide, according to C. W. Klassen, technical secretary of the Illinois Air Pollution Control Board.

The regulation, recently adopted by the board, is aimed at controlling air pollution. It states that no person shall conduct a burning operation by open burning and no person shall permit open burning of refuse and trade wastes.

Dr. Jack Bergman, chairman of the board, said the new regulation is the first such action of the board to control air pollution and was developed pursuant to the Illinois Air Pollution Control Act.

"Backyard incineration is specifically exempted since this is a matter that is rightfully within the authority of local governments to control," he said.

Operations that may be affected by the regulation are the burning of waste material at construction sites, burning of garbage by restaurants, grocery stores and hotels, the burning of refuse at open dumps and the burning of industrial wastes.

or fossil hunting—or simple educational and lead to many scenic areas. A trip to Illinois state parks and other areas in northern and southern Illinois can be made more meaningful when the geologic development of the landscape is understood.

For those interested in rocks, minerals and fossils, the survey has a list of collecting areas in Illinois. A thorough review of Illinois caves is offered in the Illinois state survey publication, "Caves of Illinois."

Illinois is the fourth largest coal producer in the United States. Its farmlands are some of the richest in the Midwest. You can learn why by reading about geological survey pamphlets or other publications.

Exploring caves, hunting rocks and fossils and studying Illinois geology are fun as well as educational.

Urban League Unit Including Madison County is Formed

At a meeting in the President's Conference Room on the Southwest Illinois University campus Monday evening, a group of citizens of Madison and St. Clair counties formed an Urban League affiliated with the National Urban League.

Purpose of the Urban League is "to promote, through racial cooperation, the development of a secure and exemplary American democracy, by assisting in ameliorating conditions within the communities." To accomplish this, the league works on "problems and opportunities in the fields of labor, housing, education, youth, health and welfare."

Governed by an internal board of directors, 51 in this case, the Urban League is a charitable and educational agency, utilizing social work standards and tools, to "influence community planning, initiate constructive activity and develop cooperative relationships of individuals, groups and institutions for the common concern of the community and its welfare."

Plans Fund Drive
At Monday's meeting, besides formal confirmation of the directors, bylaws were drawn up. Officers were elected and a tentative budget was adopted. It was agreed by the directors that they will loan a "substantial sum" to the organization to begin its work.

First order of business will be a financial campaign. As soon as a campaign director is found, individuals, organizations, professions and businesses will be contacted. It was concluded "all citizens realize the timely need for such organization and will be willing to generously support it."

The next meeting was set for Monday evening, July 26. William Boyce, East St. Louis newspaper editor, was named president; Rev. O. W. Golden, pastor of the East St. Louis First Lutheran Church, first vice president; Herbert Jackson, East St. Louis school purchase agent, second vice president; James Bailey, Alton high school assistant principal, third vice president; Miss Irene Logsdon of the Alton YWCA, secretary; and Everett Singleton, Collinsville junior high teacher, treasurer.

State Offers $26,400 for Shooting Range Property

The state of Illinois has offered Granite City $26,400 for a stretch of property needed as a right-of-way for the riverfront highway along the Mississippi River (Federal Aid Route 151), and will permit the city to keep its shooting range on the property for payment of only $1.

The proposal was presented to the city council Monday night by Alderman G. H. Sternberg in the form of a letter sent by the Illinois Highway Division to City Attorney Richard Allen. Like most issues during the evening, it brought a quick response from Alderman Walter Nann.

Nann jumped to his feet and shouted "Why, we couldn't replace that shooting range for $26,000. What do they think they're talking about? I don't see how we can consider anything like that."

"Walter," asked Sternberg, "do you listen to the letter? If you didn't, I'll read it again."

Sternberg repeated the section permitting the city to retain the shooting range for $1.

Nann objected again. "But," retorted Nann, "they'll cut it down the middle. What good will the range be then?"

Mayor Donald Parney, who had spent most of the evening trying to speed up council business to permit work on the new budget, asked Nann:

"How do you know they're going to cut it in the middle? How do you know where they will cut it? That's just your idea. You don't know what they are going to take until we see a plat."

A motion was made to refer the matter to the Street Committee and the motion was approved. Nann voted "No."

The section involves 13 lots of property on the west side of Cedar avenue between St. Louis avenue and Oak street.

Two Murder Trials Continued in Court

Two murder trials which were scheduled to get under way this week were continued again in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville.

The defendants are Wilfred C. Bennett, 28, of 2800 (rear) Idaho avenue, charged with the murder of Frank Lafata, St. Louis taxi driver, last Sept. 16, and Paul David Kelley, 19, of Old Alton road, Mitchell, charged with the murder of Aaron Leggett, 36, at the Arlington Heights golf course last Feb. 4.

Bennett received his seventh continuance because his attorney became stranded while on vacation in another state and was unable to be here for the start of the trial on Monday, according to John Gilchiff, assistant state's attorney.

He added that the court did not wish to select a jury later this week, only to have it locked up during the long Fourth of July holiday. The trial may start next week or be delayed to September.

A continuance was granted to Kelley after a last-minute motion to determine legal responsibility, and he was to appear before two psychiatrists for examination this week. A jury may be called to determine responsibility.

Two other defendants in the same murder case, Earnest Lloyd Nichols, 47, and his son, Charles Earnest Nichols, 22, were found guilty by separate juries in June.

Former Resident Undergoes Surgery

William L. (Louie) Metcalf of Fredericktown, Mo., a former teacher in the electrical shop at the Granite City high school until moving to Fredericktown seven years ago, is recovering at Madison Memorial Hospital in Fredericktown from major surgery which he underwent Monday.

Mr. Metcalf was a member of Trinity Methodist Church while residing here.

Sp/4 Wallace Takes Part In Nordic Air Exercise

Army Specialist Four Cecil H. Wallace, 21, whose wife, Molly, lives at 2715 Iowa street, participated in Nordic Air, a three-day field training exercise ending June 19, in Denmark.

Nordic Air was a three-country field exercise involving American, British and Danish troops. The Americans were the aggressors and the Danish and British forces were the defending ground forces.

Specialist Wallace is a member of the 12th Engineer Battalion stationed near Daxheim, Germany, which joined over 2000 men of the 8th Infantry Division in an air assault over Boris and Vandel in Denmark. It was one of the largest air assaults in Europe since world war II.

Wallace is regularly assigned as a clerk in the battalion's Company A. He entered the Army in February 1963, completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and was last stationed at Fort Dix, N. J., before arriving overseas in May 1964.

Specialist Wallace, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Outlaw, live on Route One, Dover, Tenn., attended Stuart county high school in Dover. Before entering the Army, he was employed by Granite City Steel Co.

of maintaining a nuisance, was fined $10 and costs the same day by U.S. Magistrate Hiscott. The complaint was based on an accumulation of trash and debris.

Several Quad-City youngsters were among the 75 handicapped children from Madison county who are spending a two-week Easter Seal Day Camp, which ends tomorrow at Monticello College, near Golfrey. Miss Vicky Garrison of Granite City is serving as one of 24 junior counselors, recruited from the county.

Under the direction of Mrs. John Kleeman, 20 brothers from the Quinze Fathers, along with volunteer camp nurses, life guards and the junior counselors provided programs at eight camp sites, where the children, with their advisors, handled their own activities. They included cookouts, camp crafts, hikes and swimming sessions.

Organizations which have contributed financial and physical support to the day camp, include the Junior Service League, which annually underwrites the program; Easter Seal Society Auxiliary; Interact Club of Granite City; Voice Crippled Children's Association; Wood River Lions Club and the Council of Lutheran Churches Auxiliary. Local clubs also sponsored the attendance of individual children.

Among state visitors attending sessions at the camp were Thomas Shrewsbury, assistant state director of the Easter Seal Society of Illinois; Kenneth Wickenhausen, president, Madison County Easter Seal Society; Mrs. Kay McBeth, children's rehabilitation division, Illinois Department of Public Aid; and representatives of the American Campers Association.

Claim City, State Agreed on Nameoki Rd. News Releases

An apparent agreement by city officials that they would withhold any public statement on progress of the Nameoki road improvement project and let officials of the Illinois State Highway Department "do the talking," came to light in Monday night's Granite City council meeting when Alderman Ford Johnson pressed City Attorney Richard Allen for a status report on the improvement job.

The development came when Johnson asked Allen to tell the council where the city stood on the Nameoki road widening project as far as the city's obligation of providing right of way is concerned.

Allen replied, reluctantly, that he was unable to speak for publication because the previous administration apparently had had difficulties with state highway officials in the handling of the right-of-way program and adverse publicity had resulted. Allen told Johnson, however, that "so far as the city is concerned, our job is done. All of the information needed by the state is in its hands."

Alderman Walter Nann took issue with Allen on his reference to the previous administration. "I was on the committee that handled the right-of-way work and negotiations before and we never gave a statement to a newspaper," Nann said. "Allen, who was appointed city attorney at the beginning of the present administration, pointed out he was not acquainted with the situation previously, but knew only what highway officials had said in recent meetings. Nann made a remark about the progress made by state officials and Mayor Partney ruled the discussion out of order."

Revive Proposal for Sidewalk Through Park

Alderman R. E. Robertson proposed to the Granite City council Monday night that he revive a project for paving a half-mile sidewalk through Wilson Park from Fehling road to Niles ringhaus school so that "children won't have to walk over muddy paths during rainy weather."

Robertson agreed to a suggestion that the matter be referred to the Street committee, of which he is a member, to determine if such a project might be set up on a share-the-cost basis with the city, park district and school district sharing one-third of the cost each.

Alderman Steve Basarich made the only objection. He said he had been a youngster once himself, and as such knew youngsters didn't like to walk on sidewalks and that, if the walk was built, the children still would walk through the mud.

Later, however, Johnson renewed his demand to Allen that a report be made on progress on the Nameoki road project.

Allen replied that city officials had agreed to let state highway officials release all statements concerning progress on the project.

Mayor Partney interrupted. "Mr. Johnson," he said, "for your information I have in my office a progress report on the Nameoki job. If you will drop into my office tomorrow I will let you read it. I am sure you will be satisfied with it. It is satisfactory." Johnson replied that it was. "I'll withdraw my motion calling for a report," he said, and sat down.

Smallpox in War Prison

Alton Obelisk Tells of Deaths Of 1354 Confederate Soldiers

Tourists who travel the Great River Road in the vicinity of Alton should make all efforts to follow State street from the riverfront northward to where it is crossed by the railroad to visit the Confederate Cemetery there. Here a tall monument tells the story of the smallpox epidemic in U. S. history. On the obelisk is an almost unbelievable statement.

Erected in 1910, the shaft is in memory of no less than 1354 soldiers who died in the area of smallpox.

In today's age of biotics and vaccinations, this many deaths to a dread plague like smallpox seems almost unbelievable.

Yet when these soldiers died, between 1862 and 1865, smallpox was a killer disease that ravaged unchecked because there was no way to combat it.

In Prison and on Island
The site of the first state prison in Illinois, is at Broadway and William streets in Alton. It became the center of a violent controversy that eventually ended in a legislative investigation and the construction of a new prison in Joliet.

Badly situated in a spot too near the Mississippi, untrained and ungraded, it aroused the instant criticism of Dorothea Dix, pioneer in prison reform, who soon joined others to her cause. With the outbreak of the Civil war, the plan to discontinue the prison was abandoned, and it became a military detention camp.

6 to 10 Deaths a Day
Overcrowding and the lack of sanitation culminated in a smallpox epidemic in 1863, which raged uncontrolled for weeks for want of prison doctors. Prisoners died at the rate of six to ten a day.

Finally, citizens demanded that all striken prisoners be transported to an uninhabited island in the Mississippi, where a deserted dwelling was converted into a hospital. There is no record that any of these prisoners ever returned from the island, recovered.

Although no death records are available, it is presumed that several thousand persons died and were buried on this island during those tragic days. Others of the Confederate soldiers who died during the epidemic are buried in today's Confederate reservation, the cemetery at State and Rozier, where the shaft lists the names of 1354 men.

Historic Proof of Plague
Standing at this monument, even today, one shudders at the immensity of death. Here is historic proof of a plague ravishing the young men of a nation, soldiers at war. It takes little imagination to envision the heartache and grief of the deaths to their loved ones far distant.

Time mellowed all things, but site of the old prison, the island in the river, brings it all back into sharp focus. Here was the stark terror of war and disease. Today's hurried worker passes the monument unthinking. But once he stops, reads the names, the tragedy is given a reality. This Confederate Monument, high on one of Alton's many hills, is definitely a "must see" for all who journey through Illinois Expedition Land. A visit here has a solemnity about it that is still rewarding. We tell ourselves, it couldn't happen again.

Revised Church Service Explained to Kiwanians

Rev. Walter Werts, assistant pastor of Sacred Heart Church, was guest speaker Monday evening at the Granite City Kiwanis club's weekly dinner meeting held in the Bear Bowl restaurant.

Twelve members were present. Rev. Werts was introduced by Eugene Fry, program chairman.

The local priest discussed various proposals under consideration to modernize the worship service and ceremonial procedures in the Roman Catholic church. Part of the changes now in effect, he said, include, replacement of portions of the traditional Latin service with English. He also spoke on the religious significance of the changes and their acceptance by church leaders and congregations.

Herbert R. Schannoff, president, conducted a brief business session and plans were made to hold an inter-club meeting at 6:30 p.m. next Thursday with the Glen Carbon Kiwanis in that community. The local club canceled its regular Monday dinner next week due to the holiday weekend.

Asks Parking Space Be Removed to Aid Traffic

The city's Traffic Control Commission was requested by Alderman G. H. Sternberg Monday night to study the feasibility of vacating the first parking place at the southeast corner of 20th street and Delmar avenue to eliminate a traffic hazard. Sternberg told the city council that many vending trucks supply stores on that corner and that trucks parked in the first space obscure the view of motorists driving north on Delmar.

Copies of Child Abuse Law Going to 23,000 in State

Brochures describing how the new Illinois child abuse law will work are being mailed by the Department of Children and Family Services.

They are being sent to some 23,000 Illinois physicians, surgeons, dentists, osteopaths, chiropractors, podiatrists, Christian Science practitioners and hospital administrators. These are the persons who must report suspected cases of child abuse to the department under the law that takes effect today.

Dr. Donald Brieland, department director, said brochures are also being mailed to sheriffs, police chiefs, judges, state attorneys, welfare agencies, school administrators, public health departments, public aid superintendents and news media.

"There are two keys to make the law work to save children from brutal beatings and neglect," he said. "One is making people aware of the law. The other is encouraging those covered by the law to file reports when they examine children whose symptoms indicate abuse or wanton neglect." The law grants physicians and hospitals immunity from legal action when they make reports.

Posters in Hospitals

Posters are being issued to hospitals for display in emergency rooms. They call attention to the usual kinds of abuse and alert doctors and hospital personnel to notify the administrator whenever they treat a child whose condition cannot be explained as accidental.

The brochure explains what practitioners must do when they suspect a case of abuse. It also describes how social workers from the department will provide protection for the child, as well as counsel for the child's family.

When the act against the child provides the basis for criminal action, the department will turn over the information to the state attorney of the county having jurisdiction.

Dr. Brieland said mailing of brochures would be completed by today. After that time, interested persons or agencies may obtain a copy by writing to the Department of Children and Family Services, Room 404, State Office Building, Springfield, Ill., 62706.

NEW OFFICER CANDIDATE in the U. S. Army is Louis A. Suich Jr., 2002 Fourteenth street, who takes the oath from another Granite Cityan, Lt. Donald Deuschmann, at the Granite City Army Depot.

Holiday Economic Traffic Toll to Hit $100 Million

The economic loss of the July 4th weekend traffic accident toll — not including the tragedy of hundreds of dead and injured — will be the greatest in history as is expected to exceed the $100 million mark, according to insurance company statistics.

Quid-City area police officials already have issued warnings of intensified traffic control in an attempt to keep down the number of accidents, anticipated because of the heavy traffic flow. The usual "Red Alert" will be maintained throughout the holiday period by both local and state police. Because the observance of July 4 will be carried through Monday this year, the weekend will be another three-day holiday. During the recent three-day Memorial day observance nearly 360 persons were killed in traffic accidents.

State police, as usual, will cancel all leaves and investigations of the secretary of state's office. In uniform, will supplement the state police crews in traffic control work. Helicopters equipped with radios will patrol above highways and report congested sections and accidents to ground crews. Police officials in the Quad-City area will maintain full traffic crews around the clock during the holiday period.

Human Driving Errors
Traffic safety experts point out "the sad fact is that our tragic traffic accident problem is caused principally by human driving errors, many of which are considered little things by drivers, such as a momentary distraction . . . or just plain inattention."

Unless drivers give constant attention and complete concentration to their driving task, we shall record the highest traffic death and injury toll in our history," the experts say.

They suggest that drivers "avoid looking at roadside attractions called to your attention by members of your family. That split second it takes to look at an unusual building or landscape can lead to disaster. A momentary look away from the road ahead can set you up for a rear end collision or a head-on crash."

Watch Your Driving
Among several defensive driving measures that motorists might take to insure safe trips during the holidays, the experts cite the following:

"1. Keep your mind on your driving. If you want to observe a roadside attraction, pull your car to a safe place off the road."
"2. Keep two hands on the wheel. You can't react in time to emergency situations using only one hand while driving."

"3. Have the family save their fun and frolic for their destination, not en route. Horsplay in the car can distract the driver and lead to disaster."

"4. Expect the worst from other motorists and pedestrians and concentrate on the entire driving environment."

Albert E. Robinson, 2648 Madison avenue, will be honored for "exceptional service to the Quad-City area" by the MFA Insurance Companies at its annual Agents Conference of Champions July 9-13 at Nassau in the Bahamas.

A. D. Sappington, president of MFA, said, "The selection of Robinson to attend the conference truly indicates that he has earned the title of champion, and he is to be congratulated for his efforts."

Robinson and his wife, Grace, will fly July 9 to Nassau, where they will join other conference winners for five all-expense-paid dinners. Robinson will be honored by business meetings and presentation awards, during which the directors, managing staff and agents will discuss the past year's performance and chart future service to the insuring public.

Granite City in 1957 and 1958. A native of Mandeville, Jamaica, W. I., he attended the Jamaica Bible School in Mandeville and the North Central Bible College, Minneapolis, Minn., graduating in 1956.

He served as Sunday school superintendent of the Pentecostal Assembly, Granite City, in 1961 and 1962 and is presently trustee and deacon. Mrs. Robinson is the former Miss Grace E. Hossey, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Hossey, 2431 Missouri avenue. The Robinsons have two children, Janet Beth, eight, and Myrnell Louise, five.

Advice to Employers From Internal Revenue

District director of Internal Revenue for central and southern Illinois, Jay G. Philpott, today emphasized the importance of enclosing validated depositary receipt forms with withholding and excise tax returns.

Failure to enclose these receipts results in unnecessary inconvenience for the taxpayer and additional expense for the Internal Revenue Service, Director Philpott urges those who are engaged in the filing of employment taxes to take an extra moment to check the return for completeness before mailing.

DWI Charge Dismissed

A charge of driving while intoxicated against William V. Wargin, 1934 Cleveland Blvd., was dismissed Monday by Magistrate Hiscott because of lack of prosecution. He was arrested March 1.

Granddaughter of Local Woman Killed in Crash

Mrs. Wanda Menne Meyer, 17, granddaughter of Mrs. Cora Sergeron, 1854 Edwardsville road, and the former's 22-year-old husband, William L. Menne Meyer, both of Edwardsville, were killed in a head-on collision Sunday night on Illinois Route 29, three miles north of Athens.

Funeral services were held at 9 a.m. today at St. Boniface Church, Edwardsville.

The young couple, married only three months, was among four killed in the same accident. Also killed were Michael Agles, 22, of Edwardsville, and Clifford E. Bush, 35, of Springfield. Mr. Agles and Mr. and Mrs. Menne Meyer were returning to Edwardsville from Mason City, following a visit with the former's parents.

According to state police, Bush was driving north in a 1954 Buick Wildcat at a high rate of speed when he went into the southbound lane of traffic and collided head-on with Mr. Menne Meyer's vehicle. Both Mr. Agles and Mr. Menne Meyer were employed by Frun-Gulon Construction Co.

Mrs. Menne Meyer, daughter of Mrs. Pearl M. Moore of Rural Route Two, Edwardsville, and J. C. Grimes of East St. Louis, was a June graduate of Edwardsville high school. She is survived by other relatives in the Quad-Cities, including an uncle, Richard Sergeron of the Edward Dubish, retiring president; Emmet Pazio, secretary; Mike Sasyk, director.

Thieves Take Motor Off Riding Mower

Speedy thieves removed a four-horsepower gasoline motor off a riding-type lawn mower and also made off with two tires and wheels within an hour's time Monday at the home of Donald Bernhardt, 1200 Granite avenue.

Bernhardt told police he was away from his home only between 9 and 10 p.m. The tires and wheels were taken from his garage which had been left open, and the lawn mower had been outside at the rear of the house.

For pennies a day (because Summer Air Conditioning is so economical), and without attention (because Summer Air Conditioning is completely automatic), and quietly (because the weatherproof compressor is away from living quarters, and air discharge is directed away from your house), and invisibly (because its compact design fits neatly into your furnace, with a low-profile condenser that's easy to hide away near the foundation or other convenient spot), your family can enjoy real hot-weather comfort.

Its constant supply of cool, dry air removes excess body heat and moisture. You eat better, sleep better, work and relax better—with less strain on your heart—when your home has summer air conditioning.
